

About MTCP

The Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP) was officially launched on 7th September, 1980 at the Commonwealth Heads of State Meeting in New Delhi, to signify Malaysia's commitments to South-South Cooperation in particular, Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC).

The MTCP is based on the belief that the development of a country depends on the quality of its human resources. MTCP reflects the Malaysian Government's commitment towards the promotion of technical cooperation among developing countries, strengthening of regional and sub-regional cooperation and as nurturing collective self-reliance among developing countries.

More than 100 MTCP Programmes offered by more than 79 MTCP Training Institutions. Since its launch, more than 29, 000 participants from 140 countries have benefited from the various programmes offered under the MTCP.
